

The Definition of Thank You

EXCLAMATION: a polite expression used when acknowledging a gift, service, or compliment, or accepting or refusing an offer:

NOUN: an instance or means of expressing thanks

What do you say when saying “Thank you” doesn’t seem to be enough? The outpouring of support for this year’s Senior Angels Program fundraiser was beyond all of our expectations. We broke every record we had. As of 12/31/16 we raised $14,541.40.

So, Thank You! You rock! Way to Go! Kudos! Awesome Job! Atta boy! Atta girl! Give yourself a gold star! Amazing! Tremendous! Grand! Pat yourself on the back! :

- To the Greene County Legislators (especially Gene Hatton), that helped make Our First Community Thanksgiving Dinner a Huge Success by granting us the Wayne C. Speenburgh Grant.
- To the donors that earmarked their donation or additional donation to the Thanksgiving Dinner.
- To DiStefano’s Meats that graciously donated 140 lbs. of turkey to our Thanksgiving event.
- To Liz Jarvis for making the Thanksgiving pins that she handed out to everyone at the dinner.
- To the Thanksgiving Dinner Committee, Volunteers and Staff that gave up their Thanksgiving Day with their families, to spend it with your Greene County family.
- To everyone that made a donation this year. Whether you bought baked goods at our bake sales, purchased a Senior Angel Pendant, made a contribution at the Victorian Stroll, bought a handmade afghan, bid on our Ski Package, or made a cash donation to the fund.
- To everyone that made baked goods, chocolate lollipops, cakes and pies for our bake sales.

Because of your overwhelming outpouring of love and support. We were able to provide “Senior Angels Blessings” to 197 seniors in Greene County. Don’t think just because the holiday season is over, we are done. With a portion of these funds we provide emergency one time funding to seniors in need from Greene County Senior Angels year round.

So on behalf of our Senior Angels Committee: Andrea Benjamin-Legg, Rose Bundy, Maureen Murphy, Mary Jean Pomilla, Ken Brooks, & our Angel watching from above, Sheila Benjamin-Ormerod . . . Thank you and God Bless.
